Talking With God:

Principals From Powerful Prayers

As Believers, we know that we are supposed to pray, but exactly what is prayer and how do we do it? Should we have a plan or just go with the flow of the spirit? Do we need to watch our words, or can we say anything to the Heavenly Father? Should we expect to hear from God as we come before Him, or is prayer merely a one sided conversation?

In this three part series, we will be looking at powerful prayers that are found in the Scriptures, and seeing what we can learn about this topic, while also pulling aspects from them that we can apply to our own talks with God

Jeremiah 29:12-13

"Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all you heart."

About Kimberly:

I live in Northeastern Pennsylvania with my husband Gary. We have been blessed with two children, Andrew and Alexa, who love and are walking closely with the Lord. We have been members of the Fellowship Church for twenty-seven years, and have had wonderful opportunities to be involved in various ministries there. We are very thankful for our church family. It is so important to be plugged into a local Body of Believers because it is a place to grow in our faith, fellowship with brothers and sisters in Christ, have accountability, and serve the Lord and others with our spiritual gifts.

I have had the privilege of teaching the Scriptures for over twenty-three years, and have had a speaking ministry since 1997. In 2003, God confirmed something He had whispered to my heart many years before - that He was calling me to write a Bible study workbook. He led me to the Book of Acts and blessed me with an amazing year of sitting at His feet and at times, being overwhelmed with the things He was showing me.

Since then, I have written three other in- depth workbooks (through, Romans, and I and II Corinthians, Exodus), and a six-week topical Bible study called, "Snapshots of Issues and Answers". I am being richly blessed by all God is teaching me as I study His Word! I have also written a devotional and a collection of inspiring dramas, and have had opportunities to put together video and audio teaching series as well.

For God's glory alone!
