A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR..

Did you know that the song "God Bless America" turns 100 years old this year? Irving Berlin wrote the song in 1918 during World War I. Berlin actually wrote it for a musical called "Yip, Yip, Yaphank" while serving in the Army at Camp Upton near Yaphank, Long Island, NY. The musical it was originally written for was a comedy, and Berlin didn't think the song fit the tone of the musical, so he put it away for what would be the next 20 years. He pulled it out of storage in 1938 as World War II was looming. He actually made two revisions of the original, with the earliest manuscript dated October 31, 1938, and the other dated November 2, 1938. Berlin had the song finalized for the November 10, 1938, CBC radio broadcast to honor Armistice Day live from the World's Fair in New York City.

Kate Smith, the famous singer who truly popularized the song, said of it: "I feel it's one of the most beautiful compositions ever written, a song that will never die." In 1940, Berlin said in the New York Times, "It's not a patriotic song, but rather an expression of gratitude for what this country has done for its citizens, of what home really means."

As I think of the words of this beautiful song during this Independence Day season, I can't think of a time that our great nation needs the blessing and intervention of God more than now. As Believers, we have a calling to find the right balance in being a grateful, patriotic American while being a voice of salt and light amid a culture that is turning its back on righteousness and godliness at a blinding pace. We love our nation, we are grateful for our God-given freedoms, we are thankful for the rule of law and the gift of democracy, yet we love this nation and her people enough to remember that America's only hope- this world's only hope-is Jesus. As grateful citizens of the earthly nation, may we be ever passionate about introducing her people to King Jesus.

Here are the words to "God Bless America". May He truly bless & heal our land.

God bless America, land that I love
 Stand beside her and guide her
 Through the night with the light from above
 From the mountains to the prairies
 To the oceans white with foam
 God bless America, my home sweet home

Glenn Cohrs, Pastor of Family Ministries / Administration

You would think that as the school year ends things would slow down around here, but instead it's the opposite. We are busier than ever gearing up for Summer here at LFC. We are so excited for our VBS Ministry this year. The church is abuzz as we get into full gear. This year's VBS dates are July 9th – 13th and the theme is "Game On" "Gearing Up for Life's Big Game." The theme verse is 2 Peter 1:3 "His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and goodness." Isn't that an awesome verse? What encouragement and joy we can get from knowing that God gives us the power and strength not only to face life, but that we can touch people for Christ! Please be praying for all the children and youth who will be attending this year, as well as for the Moms in the Mom's class and for all the staff. We look forward to seeing what God is going to do through this wonderful ministry.

Right after VBS we will be transitioning to the NJ State Fair Tent ministry. This is always an awesome week where we get to be a light in the middle of the fair. Then right after the Fair we get ready for our annual Soccer Camp August 20th – 24th. So, as you can see, we don't really slow down during the summer, but that's okay as all three of these ministries are amazing opportunities to reach out to our community and share the Gospel message.

Earlier today I was training one of our workers on our Child Safety Policy and couldn't help but think about how blessed we are at LFC with incredible workers for Christ. Our workers are so devoted to bringing God all the glory He so deserves. I love some of the theme verses we use in our training. First is Mark 10:13-16 "Jesus said to them, "Let the children come to me, do not hinder them; for such belongs the Kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it." And He took them in His arms and blessed them, laying His hands upon them." Second is 1 Cor. 10:31b "... whatever you do, do it all for the Glory of God." These verses remind all of us on how we need to be loving those God puts around us and how we should always be truly looking to bring God glory in everything we do.

So, what are you doing this summer? Maybe your going to be working with one of these ministries; maybe it's a mission trip; maybe its just being a prayer warrior for one of these ministries; maybe its spending time with your family on vacation. Whatever it is, "do it all for the Glory of God."

In Christ Service,

Pastor Glenn

I'm excited to have a special guest writer for this newsletter to address an issue that has been on many of our minds lately, immigration. One of LFC's Global Partners, Ben Johnson, serves as the Director of Immigrant Hope and has answered a few common questions surrounding immigration. His article below will give us a biblical foundation of mercy, help us better understand the challenges immigrants face as well as share with us the impact that Immigrant Hope has on the Kingdom of God. If you would like to hear firsthand how God was at work during someone's immigration journey please attend "Stories of Hope" on Wednesday night, July 18th, @ 6:30PM. Dessert provided! Space is limited so please RSVP to bingraham@lfc.org or call/text 717-341-3740.

WHAT DOES IMMIGRATION LEGAL WORK HAVE TO DO WITH MISSIONS?

From the ministry of Jesus and His apostles, disciplinarian and social action have gone hand-in-hand. Jesus preached about the coming Kingdom and he also healed the sick (Matt 8:16-17). Paul planted churches and raised funds for the poor (Acts 11:29-30). James taught the gospel and demanded those who love God serve others (James 2:14-17). Jesus lived and died so that we could be saved (Luke 19:10) and join Him to create a new kind of society (Luke 4:14-19). Meeting people's felt needs is often necessary for effective disciplinarian. Most understand that showing God's love opens hearts to hear, especially when you are trying to cross a cultural, social, or language barrier. The early church's care for the poor and oppressed fueled its rapid spread. A second reason is less obvious: obedience. Isaiah 58 shows that God may block our attempts at spiritual revival if we do not live with justice, mercy, and love. To be faithful and fruitful disciplinarians, we must serve. Providing affordable, reliable immigration legal advice is our way to apply God's love to the needs of vulnerable, suffering people.

WHAT CHALLENGES DO IMMIGRANTS FACE IN THE U.S.?

Some challenges are part of the universal migration experience – navigating new language and culture, separation from family and support structures, the struggle between assimilation and maintaining heritage. Others are unique to our society. Our immigration and criminal legal systems rest on very different principles. The immigration system is complex and unforgiving, with severe consequences for mistakes, yet most immigrants must face it alone. Many thousands lose status because they lack the knowledge to navigate the laws and procedures. They may be imprisoned for years without trial or basic amenities, or summarily deported without a chance to see a lawyer or judge. Young children are regularly imprisoned alongside or, recently, separately from their parents. Some of these conditions are inadvertent, but there is also a segment of our society, government, and even church that supports laws and policies because they make life worse for immigrants.

The effect is that immigrants in the U.S., with or without legal status, live with fear and alienation. Children are unsure if their parents will come home, parents fear to send kids to school, everyone avoids the police. Marginalized, they are prime targets for conmen and abusers and suffer more violent crime, wage theft, unsafe work, sex and labor trafficking, domestic violence, and fraud.

WHAT IMPACT DOES YOUR MINISTRY HAVE ON THE KINGDOM OF GOD?

I regularly meet with a young Somali man in the office of a church. He fled recruitment by an Islamist militia, crossed three continents alone, applied for asylum at the U.S. border, and spent a hellish year in a Texas detention facility waiting for a hearing. His application was among the 10% that court approves, and now our office is helping him transition to permanent status. God is using us to help this remarkable man find physical, emotional, and spiritual peace and security. Through our work, he has a relationship with a church offering him new community, family and faith. This story is repeated in each of our ministry's seven churches. Through service to our 1,900 clients, we have become known as places of safety, care and welcome. Church members have grown in their discipleship, learning about God's heart, His grace, and the role He has given them. All the while, our workers seek opportunities for spiritual engagement with each client by praying, sharing the gospel, and connecting them to the church family. This is how we fulfill the Great Commission and bring God's Kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.

New Testament Worship

One of the things we looked at in our Sunday School class on worship was the difference between Old Testament worship and New Testament worship. We focused on the difficult and messy process of the blood sacrifice of the Old Testament and how in the New Testament economy that sacrifice has already been made for us. Look at what we see in the Bible about this truth.

Ephesians 1:7

In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace.

Romans 8:1-3

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death. For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man to be a sin offering.

Our sacrifices today are to be in thankfulness for what has been done on our behalf, not as a requirement for our salvation. That work has been done. So how do we sacrifice today?

Hebrews 13:15 (NIV)

Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name.

Look how often we are told to offer the sacrifice of praise to our God – CONTINUALLY!

Romans 12:1

"I urge you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship."

I do not know about you, but I am sure glad I live on this side of the cross. Hebrews tells us that we no longer need the temporary earthly tabernacle. Hebrews also tells us that now Christ is our high priest and has offered the sacrifice on our behalf; once, for all. Christ took our sin upon Him so that the debt for our sin would be satisfied. It should give us great joy to realize what our Savior has done for us. Christ took our burden on Himself and became the sacrifice for our sin. Now in gratitude we offer Him our sacrifice of praise from our lips and our lives.

In some ways, though, we have lost something. We do not look at our worship as our responsibility. We act as if the job of worship belongs to someone else, perhaps the worship leader or the worship team, or even the pastors. The Old Testament worshiper performed much of the ritual himself. He cleansed himself and his offering, he approached the tabernacle with expectancy, and he prepared and killed the animal. The priest then completed the worship as the worshiper looked on from a distance. It was absolutely necessary for the worshiper to be actively involved in the process.

In the economy of the New Testament, we are called to be both the worshiper and the priest. The work of worship becomes the responsibility of each of us. It is our responsibility to prepare ourselves for worship; to offer the sacrifice of our praise, the fruit of our lips, to present all of our lives, to give thanks to His name. We must become actively involved in our worship so that we might proclaim the praises of our Lord, Who has paid our debt for sin forever.

How then should we define our offering today; as the giving back of our all to Him who has given all.

Do not take Christ's sacrifice for you lightly. Spend time daily honoring Him by reading His Word, praying and living lives that give worth to Him. Seek to use the gifts and talents that He has given you to proclaim His praise and demonstrate your love for Him. Spend time encouraging others, learning what it means to become the Body of Christ. As you worship, come with expectancy that God has plans for His people, and wants to engage each of us. Be, as we are called, a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, so that you may proclaim the praises of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

2018 COMMUNITY PROJECTS Short-Term Youth Missions Trip

We had an incredible week of serving together along side of members from Milford Bible Church! Hopefully you were able to make it out to the team report a few weeks back, but in case not, I encourage you to ask our students and others who were involved in the project about how God was a work and the things they learned from the experience. The students involved were Sarrah Clark, Sarah Llerena, Aiden Ingraham, Caleb Robb, Katie Robb, Kelsie Robb, Victoria Schiedlo, Jonathan Schiedlo, Cailey Deming, and Anthony Lasslett. We are also incredibly grateful to the many others who took part through providing meals, building relationships, and helping with projects. It was a great picture of the body of Christ working together.
